

1. London is a vibrant city with a rich history. It is the capital of England and is located on the River Thames. Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament are iconic landmarks. The city is also known for its diverse culture and world-class museums like the British Museum. From the Tower of London to Buckingham Palace, there's always something to explore.
2. Paris, the City of Lights, is one of the most famous cities in Europe. The Eiffel Tower, a symbol of Parisian elegance, dominates the skyline, offering breathtaking panoramic views. Walk along the Seine River, cross its charming bridges, and discover cafes and vibrant street art. Explore the Louvre Museum, home to masterpieces like the Mona Lisa, and immerse yourself in the artistic atmosphere of Montmartre.
3. Roma is a city rich in history and culture, often referred to as the "Eternal City" and "Caput Mundi" (Capital of the World). Rome is known for its ancient ruins like the Colosseum and Roman Forum, as well as its stunning Renaissance and Baroque architecture, including St. Peter's Basilica and the Trevi Fountain. The city is also the center of the Catholic Church, there is Vatican City, an independent state within Rome. (NON ESTRATTA)